

ENCYCLOPAEDIA OF ISLAM AND THE ISLAMIC WORLD 2019

No other reference work provides such a comprehensive and accessible treatment of this subject from historical and contemporary points of view!

Never before has the need for accurate, balanced, in-depth information on Islam been greater. In Encyclopaedia of Islam and the Islamic World experts from around the world – eminent scholars in anthropology, economics, history, law, literature, political science, religion, sociology, and women’s studies – examine all aspects of one of the world’s three great religions and its peoples.

Key facts:

- * 400 A-Z articles in 1100 pages, spanning 2 volumes;
- * Articles range from 250 - 5000 word essays;
- * 200 black & white and colour illustrations and maps.

Importance of this work:

- * This is the only accessible, yet comprehensive, reference on Islam and the Muslim world;
- * The global conflicts involving Muslim countries and communities demonstrate the ever-increasing need for information and understanding on this subject.

Benefits for readers:

- * Essay from expert contributors drawn from around the world;
- * Appendices contain: timeline of Islam and genealogy charts to put events and people in context;
- * Short definitions, biographies, and essays examine the interconnectivity of the social, economic, political, and religious institutions;
- * Bibliographic sources open up a world of continued learning;
- * Fully cross-referenced to help explore related topics.
